

PLACER HISTORY PRESS

Vol. 4

Placer High Athletic Hall of Fame

This is well worth a stop when the Earl Crabbe gym is open. Coach Randall Fee and several others have gathered some great memorabilia and trophies celebrating the athletes of Placer High.

They are looking for more trophies and memorabilia. Anything in your closet that needs a new home?

Contact us and we will put you in touch with Randall.

placerhistorical@gmail.com

The Hall of Fame hopes to be part of Heritage Trail next year.

Coach Randall Fee, curator of the Placer High Hall of Fame, in the office with the Jim Geddes sketches of Coach Covich, Dr. John Engle and "After Practice."

Just a sampling of the great display of honors and memorabilia in the Athletic Hall of Fame.

History News

Mark your calendars for another outstanding presentation by the History Expedition folks. This time it is "Comstock Revisited."

The story of the Comstock Lode like you have never heard before. Lies, deception and treachery will all be featured!

Tickets available at the State theater website. These will go fast!
www.auburnstatetheatre.org

September 20, 2024

The Placer County Historical Foundation is busy with several ongoing projects according to President Hal Hall.

Steven's Trail National Register of Historic Places plaque and interpretive sign still in the works. - The Hammond Rock House has been successfully listed on the Placer County Register of Cultural and Historic Resources.

Deadwood and Last Chance Cemetery projects are awaiting (still) a Special Use permit from the U. S. Forest Service.

The 1882 Project is getting closer to making the Donner Summit Tunnel area a National Monument site.

Hope you got to see the Big Boy coming through town!

New Display in at City Hall

Unique Auburn Characters features the Burns Family. The story of a long-time Auburn family involved in the community and in the local cigar making business. Come in to learn more about Auburn's Uniques Characters. 2nd floor Auburn City Hall.

Ernest Burns began his involvement in the cigar business in 1888 and continued until his passing in 1929.